

Suzanne Luse Certified Educational Consultant

Sue has worked with hundreds of families across the Twin Cities and around the country, guiding each student through a college selection and self-discovery process. After over 20 years of counseling families, and visiting over 250 colleges, Sue is able to recommend colleges for each student that are an academic, social and financial fit. Sue thinks of her role as being a treasure hunter, helping students identify their strengths and talents, and helping them take it to the next level in high school. She inspires and motivates students to present themselves as the best possible college applicants. A prominent speaker on college issues, Sue has been featured in the St. Paul Pioneer Press, the Star Tribune, Minneapolis-St. Paul Magazine, Minnesota Parent, and Twin Cities Business' Black Book. She has also spoken on WCCO Radio and been interviewed by USA Today and The Wall Street Journal.

COUNT DOWN TO HIGH SCHOOL AND BEYOND: Getting Connected-Finding a Fit.

- Past* Where have I been?
 - Middle School Activity Log

- Present* What will be the best high school for me?
 - Decision making considerations: Location, size, academic programs, extra curricular activities, and more!

- Future* What are my dreams?
 - High School 4-year course plan?

Tuesday, January 12th
7:00-8:30 pm
Yinghua Academy

