

Name _____

Food for Thought Questions

1. What region were you in for the activity?
2. Is the region you were in one you would choose to live in? Why or why not?
3. Were you surprised by the number of students in the particular regions? What surprised you? If so, how were you surprised? If not surprised, explain what you already knew before the activity.
4. Which region consumed the most calories?
5. Which region consumed the least calories?
6. Is this difference a problem? Why?
7. What region consumed the most energy?
8. What region consumed the least energy?

9. Why do some regions consume more energy than others?

10. Which region produced the most pollution?
11. Which region produced the least pollution?
12. Why do some regions produce more pollution than others?

13. What did you learn about the world from this activity?

14. Based on this activity, make a conclusion about North America's energy consumption and calorie consumption and pollution. Use evidence to support your conclusion.

15. Do you see the inequalities around the world as a problem that needs to be addressed? Why or why not?