

Name _____

Project: Mr. Pillsbury's Advice to his Grandchildren _____/10 points

Pretend you are Charles Pillsbury. You are an old man now, but you were a poor young man who worked to become a successful industrialist. Write an essay with 3 paragraphs. Be sure to explain everything you know about each detail you include.

- Paragraph 1: How you became successful _____/3 points

1. _____
Details

2. _____
Details

- Ideas that improved the flour industry (even if they were not your ideas) _____/3 points

1. _____
Details

2. _____
Details

- Advice you think your grandchildren should follow so they can be successful in life _____/2 points

- Proofread for _____/2 points ___capital letters ___spelling ___punctuation ___grammar

Ask an adult/older sibling to proofread for you too.